

Established 1979

Accredited by CEA

SEVP approved for F1 status students

Graduate Exam Training (G.E.T.)

...is designed to prepare international students for the GRE or GMAT test

We believe in encouraging the language acquisition and personal progress of students in an atmosphere of support, openness, and understanding

8 week term with 18 hours of study per week. Students may enroll in this course up to 3 times (maximum 24 weeks)

Admission Requirements – 1 of the following:

- Completion of an accredited intensive English program
- TOEFL iBT score of 55
- IELTS score of 6

Subjects include Verbal Reasoning, Quantitative Reasoning, Analytical Writing, Test-taking Strategies

8 students enrolled per term (average)

Services available

- Homestay with American families
- Airport greeting
- University placement workshops and support
- Social activities
- Support for academic and cultural transition
- Assistance with adjusting to life in the U.S.

Costs

- $2,000 each 8 week term tuition and $200 student service fees. Health insurance is available for $275 per term.
- Homestays are available for $800 per month. Students have their own room with a place to study. In addition, they have use of the family laundry and other facilities. Host families provide breakfast and dinner.
- Monthly apartment or room rents can range from $800 up, depending on your choice of housing.

Financial guarantee amount for your F1 visa application:

$5,000 for a standard 2-month I-20 (dependents + $1,200 each).

Admission dates – 2017:

Spring: March 27

Summer: May 29

Fall I: August 28

Fall II: October 16

Application process:

Application form Application fee Copy of your passport(s) Financial guarantee

Colorado Location – Denver

- In the heart of downtown Denver
- Public transportation and parking close by
- 45 minutes from Denver International Airport
- Denver's famous combination of big-city life with world-class mountain recreation

Contact us for more information:

Email: denver@spring.edu

Phone: +1 303.534.1616