

Established 1979
SEVP approved for F1 status students

Accredited by CEA

Graduate Exam Training (“GET Program”) 2018

Our GET Program is designed to prepare international students for the GRE or GMAT test.

We believe in encouraging the language acquisition and personal progress of students in an atmosphere of support, openness, and understanding.

8 week term with 18-20 hours of study per week. Students may enroll in this course up to 3 times (maximum 24 weeks)

Admission Requirements: Completion of an accredited intensive English program; iBT score of 55; IELTS score of 6

Subjects include Verbal Reasoning, Quantitative Reasoning, Analytical Writing, Test-taking Strategies

8 students enrolled per term (average)

Services available

- Homestay with American families
- Airport greeting
- University placement workshops and support
- Social activities
- General support for academic and cultural transition
- Assistance with adjusting to life in U.S.

Costs

- $2,000 each 8 week term tuition and $200 student service fees. Health insurance is available for $275 per term.
- Homestays are available for $800 per month. Students have their own room with a place to study. In addition, they have use of the family laundry and other facilities. Host families provide breakfast and dinner.
- Monthly apartment or room rents can range from $800 up, depending on your choice of housing.

Financial guarantee amount for your F1 visa application:

$5,000 for a standard 2 month I-20 (dependents + $1,200 each).

Admission dates: 5 terms per year

Winter: January 8, 2018
Spring: March 19, 2018
Summer: May 29, 2018

Fall I: August 20, 2018
Fall II: October 22, 2018

Application pieces

- Application form Application fee Copy of your passport(s) Financial guarantee

Littleton, Colorado

- Small town charm just minutes from Denver
- Public transportation and parking close by
- 45 minutes from Denver International Airport
- Denver area's famous combination of big-city life with world-class mountain recreation